INTRODUCTION.

What we have said in previous volumes of this work we still hold to and here again emphasize.

If we depend for our information as to the change for the better, in the condition of the financial world, we have a rosey picture ahead yet trusting it will be bright enough to allow another volume to follow this during the present year.

The General Assembly has been pleased to again stand by the work, and further our old friends are still with us and new ones are being added from time to time which very much encourages the compiler, and we hereby thank our friends for their continued interest in our work.

As will be seen by a perusal of our pages no pains have been spared in order to avoid all ambiguity. The prime object of the Compiler was to so arrange the matter in these pages that no one need be a professional reader to thoroughly understand it at a glance.

The spelling has often been retained and again changed so as to come better into the alphabetical order and yet not lose their identity.

We close with our usual admonition. That the reader may be profited, instructed and rewarded for his labor and time while perusing our pages is the earnest and sincere wish of the compiler.

CHRIST CHURCH, WESTERLY.

In 1833 Rev. Erastus DeWolf, acting as a missionary of the Rhode Island Convocation preached in Westerly about seven months.

In the following year Rev. John A. Clark, another missionary of the Convocation, opened a series of meetings which was instrumental in establishing the present Church which dates from Nov. 24, 1834. The first pastor was Rev. James Pratt.

In 1835 the church building was erected at a cost of about $6,000 and was burned down in 1872. A new church was erected on the same site at a cost of $20,000.

A parsonage was built in 1836 at a cost of about $2,000.

The pastors have been Rev. James Pratt first and until Sept. 9, 1839; A. H. Vinton, 1840; William H. Newman, 1841 and until Nov. 3, 1843; Thomas H. Vail, 1844 and until Dec. 22, 1857; Arthur Mason, 1858 and until Dec. 15, 1859; J. P. Hubbard, 1860 and until March 7, 1872; D. R. Brewer, Nov. 6, 1873 and until Nov. 12, 1880; W. M. Groton, Oct. 15, 1881 and until Oct. 1898.

The present church building is a fine stone structure. The church erected in 1872, though still standing in good repair, is not used as a meeting place.

GRACE CHURCH, WESTERLY.

The Methodists made efforts in 1846 to found a church here which they in a measure succeeded in doing though the organization had a hard time of it until about 1866, when a renewed life seemed to breed in its members, since which time they have made an honorable record and built up a fine body of Christian worshippers. They have a fine church building and parsonage as well as a harmonious and well organized Society.

In our list of Marriages the names of the first three pastors, W. O. Cady, Geo. W. Wooding and G. S. Alexander, are given with each marriage ending with March 18, 1866. Since this time these marriages were performed by the following clergymen to the period stated;

G. A. Morse to April 24, 1867, James S. Thomas to Nov. 1870, F. A. Crafts to Nov. 1876, J. W. Willetts to April, 1877, Robert Clarke to Jan., 1879, Wm. P. Hyde to April, 1881, J. Benson Hamlton to Feb. 10, 1883, Geo. W. Anderson March 19, 1884, Walter Ela to March 5, 1887, Samuel M. Beal to Feb. 18, 1888, J. E. Hawkins to March 12, 1891, F. L. FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH, WESTERLY.

This church was formed Aug. 31, 1835. Rev. John Waterman was ordained and became first pastor, preached 8 months when he resigned and removed to Owego, N. Y. Ten months later, April 1, 1837, Rev. A. G. Palmer became pastor and resigned Feb. 14, 1843.

Jan. 18, 1844 Rev. E. T. Hiscox became pastor. The Church was incorporated April 21, 1845. The House of Worship was built this year at cost of $4,000, the meetings having before been held in the Union Schoolhouse. Mr. Hiscox resigned April 1, 1847. The fourth pastor was Rev. Fred Denison, who was ordained here Nov. 16, 1847; his pastorate was from this date to Oct. 30, 1854, when he resigned to accept call to Central Church of Norwich, Ct.

He again became pastor June 13, 1865 and resigned July, 1871. In 1870 a contention over the communion question arose which led to the withdrawal of 53 members who formed the Calvary Baptist Church. Another serious question arose about purchasing a new site for a new church building or enlarging the old house as also about disposing of the church property. These questions created a feeling in the church which was felt for several years and retarded the work of the order.

James Patterson became pastor Oct. 31, 1871. Thomas G. Wright, Dec. 2, 1872, John Evans April 18, 1875 and resigned May 13, 1883.

SECOND BAPTIST CHURCH, RICHMOND.

From a scant record in the hands of the Clerk we drew the following brief notes:

July 7, 1774 an invitation was sent to Elders Solomon Sprague, Eleazer Brown and Simeon Brown to constitute as a church on Aug. 1, 1774. There was considerable friction about coming to this agreement. The Church was not constituted until the last Monday of November 1774 with 19 members as follows:

Charles Boss, Robert Kenyon, George Nye, Nathaniel Perkins, Sip Potter, Mial Salisbury, Joshua Clarke, John Worden, Lewis Sunderland, Abigail Niles, Elizabeth Allen, Ruth Kenyon, Avis Rogers, Ruth Salisbury, Jude Boss, Mary Taft, Ruth Tripp, (married afterwards C. Boss), Elizabeth Clarke, Martha Burdick.

It was ordered at this time a Record Book, two puter platters and two beaker glasses for communion service.

The Church met once in four weeks at the house of William Tefft in Richmond. Before the Church had got so far towards a Church organization we find these three stray minutes.

Nov. 20, 1773, present at William Tefft's house Pardon Tillinghast, Robert Kenyon, Harper Rogers, William Tefft, George Nye, Jeremiah Crandall, Nathaniel Perkins.

Nov. 14, 1773. On the question of forming a church Harper Rogers, Pardon Tillinghast, Robert Kenyon, George Nye, William Tefft, Jeremiah Crandall, Mial Salisbury, Jeremiah Tefft, Nathaniel Perkins, William Bentley, Charles Boss, Mary Tefft, Content Boss, Elizabeth Clarke, Abigail Niles.

By the 25th of December the following additional had been procured: James Potter, Squire Potter, Elizabeth Allen, Avis Rogers, James Clarke, Abigail Bentley.

On the 24th of March following at the house of William Bentley the following persons signed the Covenant: Charles Boss, William Bentley, Robert Kenyon, George Nye, Joseph Boss, Nathaniel Perkins, Content Boss, Abigail Niles.

We can now go forward. Dec. 7, 1776 at the house of Dyer Burdick, "Voted to build a house 30x26 feet finished inside with seats instead of pews." The following Committee was named to carry the vote into effect: Robert Kenyon, James Kenyon, Mial Salisbury, Joseph Austin, Nathaniel Perkins.

A deed had been procured from Benjamin Worden of Richmondtown of the northeast corner of his land. A subscription paper was ordered drawn for subscribers of money or material for the proposed house and lot.

The next most interesting paper we found was the call to Charles Boss to become their watchman, which was dated April 19, 1781, and bore the following names:—

Joseph Austin, Reuben Greene, Mary Austin, Hannah Longworthy, David Clarke, John Baggs, Hannah Greffeth, Laurecy Crandall, William Perkins, Jude Boss, William Bentley, of Caleb, Avis Rogers, Dyer Burdick, William Bentley, of John, Waite Griffeth, Sarah Bentley, Martha Burdick, Jonathan Johnson, Joshua, Clarke, Nathaniel Perkins.

At this time an invitation was sent to Elders Simeon Brown, Eleazer Brown, Solomon Sprague, Caleb Nichols and Elisha Greene to assist in the ordination of Charles Boss.

Under date of Jan. 23, 1783, we find a tax bill against the members for Elder Boss's service for the year previous which was considered to be worth 50 bushels of corn, and the following persons paid their proportion as follows:

Joshua Clarke, 5; Gideon Babcock, 3; William Perkins, 3; David Clarke, 2; Allen Greene, 1; Gideon Clarke, 11; Perry Watson, 5½; Thomas Potter Gardiner, 2¼; Wate Rogers, 2½; William Bentley, of John, 2½; Lathan Johnson, 1; Jonathan Johnson, 1½; Joseph Austin, 4; Nathaniel Perkins, 3; Elizabeth Bosworth, 1¼; Ichabod Peterson, 1½.

Under date of April 19, 1783 a tax of £15 was ordered and the following persons paid their share in shillings and pence.

Gideon Babcock, 3s 9d; John Baggs, 1s 6d; Potter Gardiner, 1s 1d; William Perkins, 2s 3d; David Clarke, 1s 2d; Nathaniel Perkins, 3s 6d; Joseph Austin, Jr., 6d; Reuben Greene, 1s 1d; Waite Rogers, 5s; William Bentley, of John, 2s 3d; Jonathan Johnson, 9d; Lathan Johnson, 9d; Joseph Austin, 3s 4d.

Under date of Oct. 29, 1784 a tax of 15£ 2s 7d was raised, and the following estates were appraised in dollars and tax assessed in shillings and pence:

William Tefft,	$5,000	£10	8s	4d
Gideon Babcock,	900	1	17	6
Nathaniel Perkins,	450		18	9
William Perkins,	400		16	8
Reuben Greene	300		12	6
David Clarke,	210		8	10
	$7,260	15	2	7

In June 1785 the above tax was ordered for another year.

Under date of Nov. 8, 1787 we find that the proposition to build a meeting house was again revived. It was voted to be known as the Church of Richmond. The house to be built on land of Perry Watson, on ground nearest to the northwest corner of Robert Stanton's land; the said house to be 36 by 28 feet.

The committee to build the house were Elder Charles Boss, William Browning, David Clarke, Gideon Babcock, Sands Perkins, Robert Champlain and John Stanton.

The subscription list with the amount of subscription we give in shillings; the first is the list of the members and the second that of persons not members.

Amount 948½; total 1388½=69£ 8s 6d.

We next give an obituary notice taken from a Providence newspaper.

"On Sunday, the 27th day of July last departed this life Elder Charles Boss, pastor of a Baptist Church in Richmond, in the 41st year of his age, after a long and tedious illness, during which he was a pattern of patience, exceedingly resigned to the will of God, leaving satisfactory evidence of his having obtained the full assurance of faith. He was a man of uncommon piety which he happily recommended by a well ordered life and conversation. His zeal for religion was conducted with so much discretion, so sweetened by modesty, humility and a wining benevolence that it was not easy to determine who loved him best, those who most or those who least differed from him. His remains were removed to his Meeting House on the 29th where Elder Eleazer Browne delivered an excellent discourse on the occasion from 2 Tim. 4th Chapter, 6, 7, 8 verses, attended by a vast throng of people of almost all Denominations."

The membership at the time of the death of Elder Boss was 42. Sept. 10, 1804 new members added 49, making 85 in all. This year the house was extensively repaired. This time Elder Oliver Knight was hired and continued annually. Esther Tanner's name became unpleasantly associated with that of the Elder's. Gideon Clarke lead the complainants and much bitterness and feeling was aroused from the effects of which the cause suffered for many years.

Previous to May 28, 1836, the church was in the Stonington Association of Baptist, since which it has belonged to the Warren.

Dea. John Stanton was appointed Aug. 27, 1836, Wait R. Clarke, Jeremiah Briggs and George W. Atwood appointed Feb. 22, 1840.

In 1836 Elder David Burnett was engaged half time and other half he devoted to missionary work in the vicinity. He represented the church in the Warren Association Aug. 27, 1837.

The membership has been at various times as follows: Oct. 12, 1811, 77; Oct. 12, 1812, 66; Sept. 1, 1871, 79; Aug. 26, 1872, 77; report of 1875, 78; 1876, 70; 1877, 70; 1878, 112; 1880, 106; 1881, 100; 1882, 99; 1883, 92; 1884, 79; 1886, 84.

THE SECOND BAPTIST CHURCH,

SOUTH KINGSTOWN.

This Church was constituted in March 1843 with 19 members. Since its organization it has had to depend upon supplies for long periods at times. At no time has it been in position to pay such a salary as most pastors would wish for, owing to its limited resources, notwithstanding which it has shown a lively interest in spiritual affairs at all times and has made a record of which even more favorably situated churches might well be proud of.

The list following of its members is the best that could be obtained and is furnished from the notes given by the Church Clerk Christopher Browning, Jr.

Pawcatuck Sabbatarian Baptist Church.

NOTE.—This Church was formed by the dismissal of those members of the First Hopkinton that lived in the compact part of Westerly, and who were desirous of having a church building nearer to their residences. Accordingly April 16, 1840 was the birth of this Society for various benefits to themselves and associates. This church now has a very influential body of worshippers, and their building compares well with those of the other religious denominations.

Newport Sabbatarian Church.

This church is one of the most interesting of the State and its history has been written at length in the Memorial Volumes and in the annals of the order, to which the reader is referred for further particulars. The reader is also referred to the Church history of Newport.

In the records of this church under date of Nov. 9, 1729, we find that it was "Voted, That a meeting house, 36 feet in length and 26 feet in breadth be built on part of the land wherein their present meeting house now stands.

"Voted, Jonathan Weeden and Henry Collins be a committee to build said house.

"Voted, The present meeting house be sold and the proceeds turned in towards building the new one."

In 1836 the General Assembly gave permission to sell property in Newport which was done.

Our list is from a copy now in the possession of the Westerly Sabbatarian Church in the Clerk's Office, from which we have made this copy, which by a comparison with the one we published in Vol. VII, Pages 623 to 634 of this work which will be found to differ in some particulars. The copy last mentioned was taken from the Sabbatarian Memorial published about the year 1854.

FIRST CHRISTIAN CHURCH, WESTERLY.

A series of difficulties in the First Baptist Church led to the withdrawal of a number of the brethren. For thirty years they were without a settled pastor. Several attempts were made which failed. At length came a time when it was thought probable that an organization could be effected, which took place Dec. 24, 1843, at the residence of Taylor Pendleton, formerly the house of Stephen Smith. The members received were twelve.

This church was organized out of the "Old Hill Church" so called.

From a published sketch we learn that the first organization was known as the "Christian Chapel Society" and was formed Sept. 25, 1843. The house was dedicated Jan. 31, 1844. First Christian Church organized Dec. 24, 1843 with twelve members. The church and society consolidated as the Broad Street Christian in Westerly in May, 1876.

The Pastors have been O. P. Tuckerman, John Taylor (22 years), A. A. Williams, J. P. Nelson, H. M. Eaton, J. G. Noble, Mrs. E. G. Gustan, B. F. Clayton (7½ years), T. S. Weeks, G. A. Conibeare, George E. Merrell.

The present membership (1898) is 277. The following is the list of members from Sept. 25, 1843 to Feb., 1888.

MARRIAGES.

Performed by Joshua Babcock, Esq., of North Stonington.

Joshua Babcock, born June 5, 1783, died Oct. 1, 1810. He was a farmer and merchant who lived and died on Pendleton Hill. His parents were Oliver and Anna (Avery) Babcock, and grandparents were James and Sarah (Vose) Babcock. He married the daughter of John and Elizabeth (———) Palmer, of Lisbon. Miss Elizabeth Palmer, his wife, was born Sept. 3, 1772, and died Nov. 7, 1818.

The following item regarding the dark day appears in his diary:

"May 19, 1780 was from 11 o'clock a. m. until about 1 o'clock p. m., a time of the greatest darkness that ever I knew whilst the sun was above the earth."

The Justice's book is in the library of the Pawcatuck Historical Society at Westerly.

First General Baptist Church of Richmond

The records of this Church extend back to the year 1723 with probability of a much earlier origin. In this year they chose Daniel Averitt, of Providence, as their pastor. He remained with them in that year and was formally ordained to the pastorial office May 25, 1732.

The records of the Church previous to 1770 are lost.

At a Church meeting, Dec. 26, 1770, Elder John Pendleton was taken on trial and was finally ordained Feb. 11, 1771. The Church voted to commune only with those of their own faith and order.

At this time the Church had 213 lay members. At a meeting Sept. 7, 1771, a committee was appointed to take a deed of the Meeting-house lot where the Church now stands. It thus appears that the house was being erected.

Next we find the Church called Henry Joslin to take the watch-care of them June 7, 1788, and was ordained their pastor 14th of August following. Next we find a branch of the Richmond Church located at Amsterdam, in New York State.

At a church meeting in Richmond, Sept. 2, 1797, they took into consideration a request from the Amsterdam Branch, calling them to ordain Brother Wm. Allen, a member of Richmond Church, to labor with them, which was granted. He was ordained Nov. 6, 1798.

Next we find that there had existed for some time, a branch of this church at Broadalbin, in the state of New York, and, as many of the Richmond Church members had moved to that section, they earnestly solicited Elder Joslin to come and settle with them. Accordingly, on the 8th of March, 1806, Elder Joslin requested liberty of the Church to remove there, which was granted him. From 1771 to 1802, as near as we can find by the records, they had received 217 members and ordained 3 deacons.

Now we commence a new book of records of First General Six Principal Baptist Church of Richmond, 1802, and canvass them down to the present time.

First, we find Elder Henry Joslin pastor. In August 29, 1805, their statistics show 178 lay members, 2 elders, 3 deacons, total 183. We have stated above that Elder Joslin had resigned to go to the branch church at Broadalbin, N. Y., the Richmond Church being now left destitute of a shepard until Sept. 10, 1810, when Deacon Joseph James was chosen for pastor; also, at about the same time, David Kenyon and Weeden Barber were chosen for deacons, all ordained to their respective offices Sept. 17, 1810. Next we find a report from the branch church of West Greenwich (now called Plain), which the mother church of Richmond had called them to make, which reads as follows: "Members baptised in the years 1813 and 1814, under the watch-care of Elder Wm. Manchester, 40. Members united with said branch during the two years."

From Sept. 17, 1810, to Dec. 30, 1827, Elder James labored as pastor of said church and there were 114 members added. (Elder James died Nov. 2, 1828.)

From the death of Elder James to Dec. 6, 1832, the sister churches supplied this church with ministers. Dec. 6, 1832, Brother Weeden Barber, Jr., was ordained to the ministry as assistant elder of said church. August, 1833, Elder Thomas Tillinghast was called by the church to take the pastoral care of said church, which he accepted and labored faithfully until 1862. Number added to the church under his care, 816; average per year, 28 1-7.

Rev. Gilbert Tillinghast was called and installed as pastor April 12, 1862, and remained until his death, May 16, 1877—68 members were added during his pastorial care. Rev. S. B. Bailey was installed pastor June 25, 1877. Resigned Jan. 7, 1882. During his services 6 were added to the church. Rev. D. L. Beanett installed pastor April 8, 1882. His resignation received by the church March 12, 1892. During his labors 22 members were added. Since his resignation we have had no regular pastor, but have had assistants once a month to administer the sacrament. Rev. L. F. Randolph has preached to us three Sundays and sometimes four each month to good acceptance. During these five years there have been 10 members received into the church. Total members received into the Woodriver Church from 1802 to 1897, 1219; previous to 1802, 430. Total 1649.

The old plant has had five branches spring out from her labors, and bore good fruit, namely: Broadalbin, N. Y., Amsterdam, N. Y., West Greenwich, South Kingstown and Charlestown. Should the members of the branches be all counted, of the old mother church, it would probably swell the number to over three thousand.

We are indebted to Deacon J. Clarke Reynolds for this sketch and the list of the members which we have placed in the order here given.

Members.

NOTE.—It will be noted that the members are recorded 1770, 1810, 1814, and W. G. B. (West Greenwich Branch). This refers to the list started under those dates. The others not so designated belong to the Elder James list and are to be so considered.

THE QUIDNESSET BAPTIST CHURCH.

The history of this church in connection with the biography of its first pastor, breaks the rule that has come to be believed universally, "That a prophet has no honor in his own birthplace." Elder Joseph Wanton Allen, born Aug. 22, 1794, died May 2, 1873, at one o'clock P. M., spent his whole life within the limits of this church he founded and continued to serve until death. He united with the Baptists in 1816. May 30, 1822, he joined the First Baptist Church of North Kingstown. He was early licensed to preach and did so acceptably in the vicinity. June 1, 1828, he established the Union Branch of the Baptist Church. He was blessed with worldly goods so much that he was not dependent upon his people for his salary. His life bore out the faith he believed, and he left behind him a name that is respected as well as honored.

Jan. 12, 1839, the Branch took on the articles of a distinct church and drew a Covenant. They were recognized April 4, 1839.

In April, 1842, this church passed a spirited resolution against African Slavery.

The new meeting house was built free from debt and dedicated Aug. 11, 1842.

In 1844, the church had a musical war over the question, shall instrumental music be used in the church? The vote was No. This was a common affair in those days, some churches breaking up over it. The act was repealed in 1849.

In November, 1849, a stranger came into the neighborhood. He could preach finely and was so invited. Inquiries led to the fact that he was not a minister, an accepted member of any church, and further that his life belied his words. The church was much disturbed over the affair and placed upon its records the following resolution:

"That we will not invite any stranger to hold forth in our meeting house in the future who does not come accredited from the church of which he is a member or recommended as a Minister of Christ."

We write this down because we believed the church was sound and honest at the time and proposed to remain so. It is not the part of a historian to take sides in controversies, but to state the facts on both sides impartially. While we do not profess any christian faith we have as high regard for all the attributes of virtue and right living as any one, and we make no exceptions. In this vote a wise thing was done as well as a prudent one. In our experience with records and historical studies we have often come into collision with the question, "Why did you break up?" and found this fact as above stated to have been the cause. While I think the right of free speech should be liberally considered I do not think a stranger, without proper credentials, should be given charge or direction of the service. These men, many of them impostors, have done the cause they profess to serve great harm by this conduct. A man that honestly desires to try his gift should not be ashamed to prepare his credentials and show them where needed in order to protect himself and his friends from future trouble. I think it is doing a crime, if not the highest blasphemy, to act otherwise. Farther I believe the church cannot be too firm in holding to such a wise thing as we have recorded in this church.

In our Narragansett Historical Register we published in the April number, 1883, and the July following two sketches (a) Rev. Joseph Wanton Allen, by Daniel G. Allen (Quidnesset); (b) History of the Church, by Rev. William P. Chipman the then pastor. These sketches have a portrait of the Elder, and the first, second and third meeting houses. The sketches are worth reading by one who wishes a fuller account of this church.

The Baptist Church of East Greenwich.

The History of this church dates from Jan. 30, 1839. On this day an Ecclesiatical Council met at the house of Rev. Thomas Tew, to take into consideration the propriety of forming a Baptist Church in this village. Delegates were present from two churches in Providence and from churches in Westerly, Richmond, Pawtucket, Arkwright, Fiskville, Warwick and East Greenwich. The Council was organized by the choice of Rev. John Dowling, D. D., as Moderator and Rev. E. K. Fuller, Secretary.

Seventeen members of Baptist Churches presented their letters to the Council together with the articles of Faith and Covenant, adopted by them and they were duly recognized and constituted as an Independent Baptist Church. Rev. A. G. Palmer offered the opening prayer; Rev. John Dowling preached the sermon; Rev. B. C. Grafton gave the prayer of recognition; Rev. B. Johnson the charge to the church and Rev. J. W. Allen the concluding prayer.

A few weeks afterwards Mrs. Pardon Miller, of the First Baptist Church, Providence, presented them a communion service.

The meetings of the church for a number of years were held in a School House, or in the Court House, and were conducted by Rev. Thomas Tew and others, until November, 1845, when the Rev. C. C. Wheeler was called to the pastorate.

April 25, 1846, it was voted to build a Meeting House 40x50 feet, at an expense of not less than $3000, which house was dedicated Jan., 1847, Rev. T. E. Jameson, of Providence, preaching the sermon.

Mr. Wheeler was in charge until Nov., 1847. After a short lapse of time Rev. B. F. Hedden was called and continued in charge until July, 1851. Doing his pastorate the church was enlarged 24 pews, a belfry was erected and a fine bell placed in it and Mr. Jabez Gorham, of Providence, gave them a clock.

Since this time the church has had several pastors until Oct., 1868, when Rev. Gilbert Robbins was called and continued to serve them for more than a decade. Since that time the church has frequently changed pastors.

Its present building is a fine wooden structure and very unique in its design.

We are indebted for most of the above facts to Dr. Greene's History of East Greenwich.

THE METHODIST EPISCOPAL CHURCH,

EAST GREENWICH.

During the year 1831 the Society of Methodists erected their house of worship on the corner of Main and Queen streets. Previous to this time they held their services in the Court House, that Asylum for all societies who have no church of their own. For a long time they struggled hard for existence, but are now in a very flourishing condition. In 1846 they built a large and convenient parsonage in the rear of their church. During the year 1850 they found their church too small to accommodate all who wished to attend the services, and that an enlargement was absolutely necessary. The building was therefore sawed into two parts, the east end moved off and a portion inserted large enough to contain twenty-four additional pews. An excellent organ (for the time), the gift of Power Street Church, Providence, was placed in the organ loft.

That organ was afterwards removed to the vestry and another magnificent instrument was procured, purchased by the financial efforts of Dr. Eben Tourjee.

Dr. Tourjee was formerly a resident of East Greenwich, and for a long time the efficient Superintendent of the Sunday School of this church.

The first Methodist sermon preached in Rhode Island was in Charlestown by the Rev. Jesse Lee, then on a missionary tour from New York to Boston, and was delivered on the third of September 1789.

East Greenwich first appears on the list of appointments in 1792. Up to the year 1807 it formed a part of the circuit connected with Warren, Warwick and Providence at different times. Since 1807 it has had a regular appointment.

We are endebted to Dr. Greene's History of East Greenwich for the above facts.

ST. LUKE'S CHURCH, EAST GREENWICH.

There was an Episcopal Church in the vicinity of East Greenwich where many of our villagers worshipped as long ago as 1728. It was on a lot at Coweset near the railroad station. The ground on which it stood is now owned by Mr. Jonathan Pierce. The lot was conveyed by the Rev. George Pigot "to the Society in London for the Propagation of the Gospel in Foreign Parts," for "erecting a church according to the establishment of churches by law in England."

When the congregation of Trinity Church in Newport built their new church in 1726, "they gave their old church to the people of Warwick, who had no church of their own." It was taken down and carried on sloops to Coweset (the Indian name for that part of Warwick), where it was rebuilt. It was two stories in height, with a steeple or spire fronting the West Road. After remaining unoccupied a long time in a ruined state, it was taken down a second time, about the year 1764, and removed to Old Warwick. Before the materials could be removed from the shore a violent storm arose, during which they were scattered and lost.

A number of graves, probably of individuals connected with the church, are still to be seen on the lot. The Rev. George Pigot resided in Warwick a number of years and owned a large tract of land near East Greenwich. He probably furnished the means for erecting the church. The Rev. Dr. McSparran, Mr. Fayerwether, and others officiated once in a month. It appears the church was never in a very flourishing condition. As Dr. McSparran says in his diary: "Episcopacy never seemed to succeed in the north part of the State, as the Quakers and other heretics are the dominant class."

The Parish of St. Luke's, East Greenwich, was organized "according to the doctrine and dicipline of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the State of Rhode Island," on the tenth day of August, A. D., 1833, at a meeting of sundry of the citizens, at the Kent Academy, the Rev. Sylvester Nash being Chairman and John P.

Roberts, Secretary. Charles Eldredge and Joseph J. Tillinghast were chosen Wardens; Daniel Greene, Howland Greene, Wickes Hill, Silas Weaver, Kingsley Bullock, John G. Ladd, Emory Fiske, Wanton Casey and William G. Spencer, Vestrymen; Augustus Greene, Treasurer, and John P. Roberts, Secretary.

Services had been held in the Academy for sometime previous and they were continued there regularly until the new church was consecrated in the April following.

The Rev. Sylvester Nash was the first Rector and continued such until the spring of 1840. He died in Wisconsin in 1863. In May, 1840, Rev. William H. Moore. He first officiated the second Sunday of July and continued to be Rector for about a year.

In December, 1840, Rev. Silas A. Crane was engaged to supply during the winter, but remained from that time until his death, July 12, 1872.

In 1875 the old church was removed and the present stone structure erected in its place.

The church under the charge of Rev. George Pomeroy Allen and his successor, Rev. Daniel Goodwin, and others, has been very flourishing. The church edifice is a beautiful structure and a fine adornment to the village.

We are indebted to Dr. Greene's History of East Greenwich for most of the above facts.
